ADVANCED BUSINESS ANALYTICS · FINAL REPORT · OCTOBER 2026

Response to instructor feedback

Vietnam Real Estate AVM · Advanced Business Analytics capstone group · 15 October 2026

Each feedback item is listed with how the final report addresses it and where to find the evidence. Section and exhibit numbers refer to the final report.

Item	Feedback	How it was addressed	Where in the report
G1	Research what the market already uses	Desk research on OneHousing, Citics, Rever, Propzy, bank appraisal and broker practice, with the gap each leaves open	Section 2; Exhibits 2, 5
G2	Analyse the problem cross-functionally, from root causes to impact	Root-cause map from five causes to the cost in each department; one subsection per department with decision, evidence and KPI	Sections 1, 6; Exhibits 1, 19, 20, 21, 23
G3	Multi-source literature review	Academic studies, IAAO standards, a practitioner method page and real-world cases (Zillow Offers, Propzy) organised by design question	Section 2; Exhibit 4
G4	Short background, long analysis	Background kept to about three pages; results, departments, value, roadmap and recommendations carry the report	Sections 5 to 9
F1	State the PDMT problem directly	One-paragraph problem statement and a stakeholder table; the PDMT map opens the pitch deck	Section 1; Exhibit 3
F2	Show existing solutions and where this project adds value	Competitor table and positioning map; the public, all-type quadrant is empty	Section 2; Exhibits 2, 5
F3	Use and combine more than one dataset	5,268 listings matched to 34,321 OpenStreetMap points by location	Section 3; Exhibits 6, 8
F4	Look at the problem from several angles	Location measured two ways (district and map distances); map data alone recovers 60% of the district gain; price, speed and segment views per district	Sections 5.1, 5.3; Exhibits 12, 17, 21
F5	Rebuild Model 2 as a real model	Stale Listing Radar: classifier with defined inputs, a rule and a logistic baseline, held-out validation (AUC 0.81), cost-based threshold and robustness checks	Section 5.2; Exhibits 14, 15, 16; Appendix
F6	Show the impact on different departments	Sales, marketing, risk and management each get a decision, evidence, an exhibit and a KPI	Section 6; Exhibits 19 to 23
